

As Holocaust witnesses fade into history, we are committed to capturing and teaching their stories as part of our collective consciousness.

Add these Minnesota stories to your Holocaust curriculum.

Learn about one family's journey to survival and become part of their lasting legacy.

IN THE SHADOW OF THE ACROPOLIS

This film reveals an ancient Jewish culture through the eyes of one Minnesota family that survived the Holocaust in Greece. Through testimony by the Ackos Family, this memoir tells the compelling story of how this culture was almost wiped off the map during World War II. It's a story you have never heard before.

BUT SOME SURVIVE

Narrated by Esther's grandson, this documentary follows Esther's life from her happy childhood in Poland to the Lodz Ghetto and her imprisonment at Auschwitz. Woven with historical Lodz footage and images from the family's return to Poland, this film illustrates Esther's triumph as she begins to "live again".

I WAS GIVEN LIFE TWICE

Hinda Danziger Kibort was the embodiment of living history and someone who, though she experienced immeasurable suffering, never failed to find the good in people. She had the uncanny ability to make people understand that her journey through the Shoah made her stronger.

STOLEN YOUTH

Stolen Youth tells a history waiting to be told. Mr. David Fishel survived the horrors of working in Nazi Slave Labor camps. He came to America to start a new life and found the courage to sue the German companies that profited from slave labor.

Making the Holocaust relevant to today's world.

SPRINGBOARD DISCUSSION STARTERS

These discussion starters allow students to connect their own experiences with those of other people as they consider tough questions related to individual worth, equality, identity, racism, personhood, survival, resilience, and forgiveness.

PICTORIAL TIMELINE POSTERS

These wall-size posters link events from World War II, to the survivor's experience, to anti-Semitism history in Minnesota between 1933-1945.
